HSC KICKSTART SEMINAR AT MACQUARIE UNIVERSITY, UTS AND UNIVERSITY OF NEWCASTLE

To help both students and parents navigate the upcoming HSC journey, we invite Year 10 & 11 (new Year 12) students and their parents to our free November kickstart seminars, with our partners Macquarie University, UTS and the University of Newcastle.

For nearly twenty years, these seminars have provided valuable insights and practical tips for students entering their HSC years, as well as guidance for parents on how to best support their children during this critical time.

The sessions will be delivered by qualified counsellors and experienced HSC markers, covering the following topics:

- Managing stress during assessments and exams
- Secrets to HSC success: insights from the marking centre
- Understanding the ATAR: what you need to know
- English tips and tricks for Advanced & Standard students
- Strategies for parents: how to provide academic & emotional support

Please click here for an event flyer and below are further details:

- Dates & Venues: Saturday 16th November (UON)
- Time: 9:30 am – 12:15 pm

INTERESTED IN A CAREER WITH THE RAILROAD...?

Get on Track with RAIL

A RIEP program with ARTC and TIC

Discover a career in the rail industry...

What is the rail industry?

The rail industry touches millions of lives in Australia every day. It helps people get to work, school and life events, and plays an essential role in connecting our cities and towns. Australia operates some of the world's longest and heaviest freight trains in the world. Every year, trains move 12 billion passengers and 13 billion tonnes of freight. By 2030, demand for passenger rail is set to increase by 40 per cent and demand for freight rail is set to double.

What careers are there in the rail industry?

Rail provides a pathway to a well-paid and rewarding career that can be as dynamic and diverse as you want with skills that are recognised across industries and around the globe. The rail industry needs passionate people in trades, engineering, customer service, training, finance and business development, to name a few.

What is the Get on Track program

This is an exciting opportunity that provides students with an opportunity to explore what a career in the rail industry looks like. The program provides students with an opportunity to gain industry validated career awareness, hands on skills relating to rail, an accredited unit of competency and work-experience that can lead into full-time traineeships.

Why should students participate?

Outcomes include:

- ✓ Employability skills
- ✓ Basic entry-level and practical skills relating to rail
- ✓ Industry validated career information
- ✓ Accredited unit of competency
- ✓ Work-Experience
- ✓ Full-time traineeship opportunities

Program Details

Stage 1: Rail Explorer

Discover what a career in rail looks like 'above' and 'below' the rail with an information and explorer event into pathways such as Train Driver, Signal Electrician, Track Maintainer, Track Operator, Maintenance Planner.

Locomotive Overview & Steam Train Ride:

- Learn about the components and operations of a steam locomotive.
- Experience a steam train ride and understand the mechanics in action.

Signal Operation:

- Understand how railway signals work and their importance in rail safety.

Track Maintainer:

- Learn the process of replacing a railway sleeper and gain insight into track maintenance.

When & Where:

- Monday 11 November, 9.30 – 2.00pm at Lake Macquarie Light Rail, Toronto

Stage 2: Accredited Training and Excursions

Students who wish to continue their interest from attending the Exploration Session will be encouraged to enrol in the accredited training component delivered by Registered Training Organisation The Instruction Company. The unit of competency is the TLIF0020 Safely Access Rail Corridor (SARC) which is a mandatory requirement for receiving the Rail Industry Worker (RIW) card for many rail network providers. Think of it as a White Card for the rail industry.

When & Where:

- End of November, TIC Rail, Beresfield. The training and excursions will be a 2-day program.

Stage 3: Work Experience

Having attended the Exploration Session and completed the accredited training and connected with employers, students will have a better understanding of careers in the rail industry. Students who have successfully completed Stage 1 and 2 will have the opportunity to undertake a 1-week work-experience opportunity with participating employers.

How to apply

What qualities are we looking for?

- An interest in the rail industry and a willingness to learn new skills.
- Motivation towards a safe workplace.
- Ability to work as part of a team.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Attention to detail and ability to effectively prioritise tasks.
- Good problem-solving and fault-finding skills.
- Ability to complete a TLIF0020 Safely Access Rail Corridor (SARC) unit of competency.

National Indigenous Business Summer School

12-17 January 2025

Join us in Melbourne for a week of free and fun activities and experience university life!

Are you:

- A First Nations high school student in Year 11 or 12?
- Interested in university life?
- Curious about the career paths that a business degree can offer?

Since 2018, the National Indigenous Business Summer School has welcomed First Nations students from across Australia to sample campus life. An immersive experience, you get to spend a week at the University of Melbourne in January 2025 with 25 other Indigenous high school students from across Australia trying out classes in business studies, taking in the Australian Open Tennis and meeting Indigenous business leaders and changemakers.

You also get to study a case on an amazing Indigenous business doing incredible things for the community.

It's a great opportunity for you to get to know what a business degree involves and how the business skills you acquire can benefit the community!

In collaboration with

DILIN DUWA

CENTRE FOR INDIGENOUS
BUSINESS LEADERSHIP

We'll bring you to Melbourne and will guide you for the whole week while you are with us. There is no cost to you as we will cover flights, accommodation and all meals.

It's all free!

They are dressed in possum skin cloaks and have a basket of ochre, berries, yams and eggs to exchange. There is also an axe of stone and timber to be traded. The squares represent the shared knowledge built over generations of cultural memory. The people are connected with a songline and they look to the ancestors to learn and maintain culture.

INTERESTED IN MEDICINE...?

Powered by: MedEntry

Are you aspiring to pursue a career in medicine? We invite you to our upcoming free Life in Medicine Conference on October 30th, a unique event that promises to be transformative for your journey into the medical field. This is not just another conference; it's a rare opportunity to gain invaluable insights from experienced doctors who are eager to share their career journeys, challenges, and successes.

What to Expect:

✓ Guest Speakers

We're excited to announce Dr Lara Freeman (Upper GI & General Surgeon) and Dr Ann Deely (Dermatologist) will present their experience as highly credentialed, current practicing specialists in two diverse fields. They will discuss their path from medical school to specialist, helping you understand the myriad of opportunities that await you.

✓ Interactive Panel Q&A

This is your chance to engage directly with professionals who have navigated the complexities of medical education and practice. Prepare your questions—whether they pertain to daily life as a doctor, the challenges of medical school, or tips for success in interviews. Their insights can illuminate your path and help you grasp what it truly means to be a doctor in today's healthcare landscape.

✓ Networking Opportunities

Connect with like-minded peers who share your passion for medicine. This conference will foster an environment where you can build relationships with fellow aspiring medical professionals and mentors, creating a support network that will be invaluable throughout your journey.

Why Attend?

Gaining insight into medicine is not just beneficial; it is a crucial aspect of the medical school application process. This conference will empower you with the knowledge and understanding you need to strengthen your application. For early applicants—those planning to apply next year and beyond—this event is your opportunity to build a solid foundation in medical knowledge. You will gain perspectives that will help you articulate your passion for medicine effectively.

For students applying this year, the guidance you receive will be instrumental in preparing you for medical school interviews. Engaging with doctors and learning from their experiences will allow you to ask questions that can clarify your understanding and enhance your responses during interviews. This is a unique chance to accelerate your application process, giving you a competitive edge over other candidates.

University of Sydney ARTiculate - Ancient History | Vesuvius AD 79: The day after

19 November

For over three centuries, the story of Mt. Vesuvius has largely centered on the dramatic events of the AD 79 eruption, freezing time at that catastrophic moment. But what about the aftermath? How did the land, and the people who lived there, bounce back? Many believe that the area never fully recovered, but recent discoveries tell a very different story—one of resilience and renewal.

In this talk, we'll explore the lesser-known effects of the eruption and how they shaped the landscape and its communities in the years that followed. You'll learn about the challenges faced by the people who lived through the disaster, from the immediate devastation to the long-term recovery efforts.

We'll discuss how Emperor Titus stepped in to help rebuild the settlements, support the survivors, and revive the farmland that had been destroyed.

By diving into new archaeological findings, we'll piece together the resettlement of the region, examining how different areas of Mt. Vesuvius were affected and how the local communities adapted. This is a story not just about destruction, but about human resilience and the enduring relationship between people and the land they call home. Through this journey, we'll uncover lessons from the past that still resonate today.

The scheme provides early conditional offers with an adjusted ATAR entry requirement that is up to 10 points lower than the usual selection rank for a particular degree. This allows you to showcase your passion and talent in addition to your ATAR score.

Join us to hear from UNSW staff and academics about submitting an outstanding portfolio for a range of degrees across the Faculty of Arts, Design & Architecture for 2025.

In these interactive sessions we will provide tips and examples on what you need to submit and how to apply. There will also be an opportunity to get all your questions answered. This info session is for students (and parents/guardians) who are completing their HSC in 2024 and are considering their options for university next year.

Wesley Hope Program for At-Risk Young People

Wesley Operation Hope combines adventure-based therapy and the natural outdoor environment to take your group on a journey of self-discovery. Through adventure-based activities in the great outdoors, you'll learn more about yourself, develop life skills and make important behavioural changes to set you on a new path.

The self-discovery process is integral to helping you grow in your identity and developing your strengths. Through our 'learning by doing' style, you'll discover how to transfer those theoretical skills into practical life. You'll become confident when making your own decisions and find strength to face consequences that you encounter along the way.

History Extension Seminar: The Project 2024

14 November

This is an exciting opportunity for your students to develop their research skills and gain invaluable advice, resources and inspiration as they embark on their own History Project.

We are proud to present a range of talks and workshops, delivered by practicing historians, archaeologists and museum and library professionals, which offer students fresh insights into historiography. Attendees will have the opportunity to engage with speakers and panelists through an online Q&A.

This is a ticketed event; attending students and teachers must purchase individual tickets at the time of booking. Each attendee will be sent a unique link to join the Zoom the day before the event. Links are valid for one person to use on one device only, and sharing this link may result in losing your place.

This seminar will be recorded and circulated approximately one month after the live event for a limited time.

We have a number of subsidised places available for schools facing challenging circumstances, so please contact us if you would like to apply.
